Program Summary

The Land of Lincoln AmeriCorps will have AmeriCorps members provide mentoring, tutoring, economic opportunity, and environmental stewardship affecting Jefferson, Marion, Massac, Williamson, Jackson, Franklin, Clinton, Washington, Perry, Hamilton, Union, Johnson, Alexander, and Pulaski Counties. Members with a focus of Economic Opportunity will be responsible for the number of economically disadvantaged individuals, including homeless individuals who are transitioned into safe, healthy, affordable housing. Members who focus on Environmental Stewardship will be responsible for the number of acres of parks and public lands that are improved and the number of miles of trails and waterways that are improved or put into use. AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 600 volunteers throughout the year. This program will primarily focus on the CNCS focus areas of Education, Economic Opportunity, and Environmental Stewardship.
